

Privacy Policy

By using VitalePro.com (Web site), you agree to the below privacy statement by JF Labs Inc. and AFAM Concept (JF Labs) and consent to the practices described.

JF Labs will not collect any personally identifiable information about you unless you provide it. Therefore, if you do not want JF Labs to obtain any personally identifiable information about you, do not submit it. You can visit and browse our Web site without revealing personally identifiable information about yourself.

You may also choose to disclose personally identifiable information about yourself, which may be maintained as described below. JF Labs may collect personally identifiable information about you from its Web site by methods such as the following.

- Registration Forms. To enter a promotion either within or outside of JF Labs, to become a registered user of our Web site, or to opt in to receive Vitale Pro information through another site, you must complete our online registration. This form requires certain personally identifiable information that may include, without limitation, your name, e-mail address, postal address, telephone number, areas of interest, product usage, and/or a unique individual password.
- Transactions and Activity. If you become a registered user or if you conduct transactions through our Web site, we collect information about your other activity on the site. This information may include, without limitation: pages viewed; content viewed, downloaded, or submitted; transaction types, amounts, and payments; shipping and billing information; nature, quantity, and price of goods or services exchanged; and individuals and entities with whom you communicate or transact business.

- Voluntary Communication. You may communicate with JF Labs through e-mail, via our Web site, by telephone, in writing, or through other means. We collect the information in these communications, and such information may be personally identifiable.

JF Labs does not provide personally identifiable information to unaffiliated third parties for their use in marketing directly to you. JF Labs may use unaffiliated companies to help it maintain and operate its Web site or for other reasons related to business operations. Those companies may receive your personally identifiable information.

JF Labs may sell or buy corporate assets. In such transactions, customer information may be one of the transferred business assets. Our Web site may contain hyperlinks to non-JF Labs URLs, including those of advertisers or third-party content providers who offer downloads on our site. JF Labs is not responsible for the privacy practices or the content of other URLs. We encourage you to read the privacy statements provided by other URLs before you provide personally identifiable information to them.
